

JF&CS Center for Early Relationship Support®

Promoting the healthy development of families at the earliest stages

Gay & Lesbian Parents Support Group

This four-week group provides parents of children ages one to three years old with an opportunity to discuss general parenting issues as well as issues specific to being gay and lesbian parents.

- Discuss child development issues including positive discipline, power struggles, and encouraging confidence and competence in your emerging toddler.
- Consider ways to interact with institutions (daycares, schools, places of worship) as you introduce your family to the world.
- Learn how similar families approach questions about donors, carriers, bio vs. non-bio parents, having more children, etc.

When: Wednesdays, May 9, 16, 23, and 30
7:30 - 9:00 p.m.

Where: St. John's Church, Parlor Room
1 Roanoke Avenue, Jamaica Plain

Cost: $60 for the series of four sessions. Registration and payment via check (made payable to JF&CS) or credit card are required before the first session. Reduced fee may be available based on need. Packages are available if both partners are participating.

*To RSVP or make payment, contact Deborah Walker at dwalker@jfcsboston.org or 781-693-5652.
For more information about the group, contact Tracy Rich at trich@jfcsboston.org.*
