

The Keshet Year
קשת

2022

Dear Friend,

In 2022, our work for change felt more urgent and important than ever. Thanks to your generosity and partnership, we made sure that LGBTQ+ equality and inclusion are here to stay—even in the face of mounting threats.

We know that more than 300 anti-LGBTQ+ bills were introduced or passed in 36 states, over 100 drag shows were protested by extremists, and many members of our community lost their lives. And yet, despite those aiming to silence us, together we have raised and will continue to amplify our collective voices.

In 2022, Keshet:

- Trained more than 7,800 staff members at Jewish schools, camps, synagogues, and other institutions that collectively serve over 4.5 million people to ensure that Jewish institutions are spaces of LGBTQ+ equality and belonging.
- Launched Thrive: the Jewish Coalition to Defend Trans and LGBTQ+ Youth with SOJOURN, now with over 200 partner organizations, to advance and protect LGBTQ+ rights, especially for trans youth.
- Returned to in-person programming for LGBTQ+ youth with two Shabbaton weekend retreats, and produced At the Intersection of Queer and Jewish, a first-ever zine entirely produced, authored, and designed by LGBTQ+ Jewish young people.

Extremists do not speak for us. We know the truth: to live authentic lives is a gift to ourselves and each other and only brings joy to Jewish life.

We are proud of all that we achieved in 2022 and grateful for your support. Together, we are building a world where LGBTQ+ lives are not only accepted, but cherished and honored.

L'Shalom,

Idit Klein

What you made possible:

In 2022, Keshet:

Engaged nearly 1,200 individual LGBTQ+ and ally youth in Keshet programs

Trained 7,819 staff and leaders from 212 day schools, camps, synagogues, service organizations, JCCs, and other Jewish institutions, which collectively serve over 4.5 million people

Mobilized members of 417 Jewish community organizations to advance LGBTQ+ rights

All of this was made possible by you and over 1,500 other supporters who donated to Keshet in 2022.

Keshet Mission and Vision

Keshet envisions a world in which all LGBTQ Jews and our families can live with full equality, justice, and dignity.

Keshet works for the full equality of all LGBTQ Jews and our families in Jewish life. We strengthen Jewish communities. We equip Jewish organizations with the skills and knowledge to build LGBTQ-affirming communities; create spaces in which all queer Jewish youth feel seen and valued; and advance LGBTQ rights nationwide.

Empowering LGBTQ+ Jewish Youth

Keshet fosters environments where LGBTQ+ Jewish youth and allies can thrive. From the return in 2022 of our in-person Shabbatonim (weekend retreats), to our weekly online programs, to fostering the leadership of youth in our internships and steering committees, we carve out space where youth are not only free to be themselves but are also active changemakers in our community.

“After the Shabbaton, I realized that my queer parts and my Jewish parts coexist, and that I should be proud and unapologetic for being a person with a multifaceted existence. What helped me reach that point of understanding was my first Keshet Shabbaton. I came home feeling empowered to bring all of myself everywhere.”

AMANDA (she/her)
Metro Detroit, Michigan

“As a high schooler attending Keshet’s Shabbatonim, one of the coolest parts was being able to build mentoring relationships with the adults. I want to grow into the kind of mentor that was so impactful to me: someone who is unwaveringly kind, down to earth, and wise. I’m looking forward to being someone younger trans kids can look to and know that life can be good and happy and sweet.”

Youth Programs by the Numbers

Led 98 in-person and online programs for LGBTQ+ and ally youth

Engaged nearly 1,200 individual LGBTQ+ and ally youth in Keshet programs

88% of these programs were youth-led. 100% were planned with youth input

Mobilizing Jewish Communities for LGBTQ+ Rights

Keshet partners with Jewish institutions to promote LGBTQ+ equality at local, state, and national levels.

In 2022, Keshet founded Thrive: the Jewish Coalition to Defend Trans and LGBQ+ Youth in partnership with SOJOURN and mobilized over 200 Jewish community organizations to join the fight for LGBTQ+ rights. Many of our partners, including some synagogues, Jewish social justice organizations, and federations, had never before taken on public leadership for LGBTQ+ rights. Together, we are changing the narrative that “religious” means anti-LGBTQ+.

Community Mobilization by the Numbers

Mobilized members of 417 Jewish community organizations to advocate for LGBTQ+ rights and provided 46 educational trainings

Over 40% of Jewish community members mobilized by Keshet reported that they were taking action for LGBTQ+ rights for the first time

Made over 100,000 Get Out the Vote calls in partnership with Dayenu: A Jewish Call to Climate Action

Launched Thrive: the Jewish Coalition to Defend Trans and LGBQ+ Youth with over 200 partner organizations

Help NCJW and Keshet thank Senators for protecting equal marriage

Keshet and over 100 organizational partners, including the National Council of Jewish Women, mobilized Jewish communities to urge their elected officials to support the Respect for Marriage Act, which was signed into law by President Biden in December 2022.

Keshet Community Mobilization Manager Lanie Cohen with Interfaith Alliance's Riya Kohli lobbying for the Respect for Marriage Act

“A supportive synagogue is not just heartwarming, it’s a powerful message in a state that uses religion to punish and abolish LGBTQ+ history, rights, and freedoms. The LGBTQ+ community is at risk as politicians demonize our lives... Keshet’s support and work in Florida is more important and impactful than ever.”

ADAM TRAUTENBERG (he/him)
Director, The Tribe
Miami Beach, Florida

“I live in a state in which I am in the minority —both as a Jew and as an ally, and often feel like my voice is unheard and my presence unwelcome. Having the opportunity to be one of 108 organizations signing on to Keshet’s Respect for Marriage Act letter was truly empowering. It’s energizing to know that in a state that is trying to strip the LGBTQ+ community of basic human rights and dignities, we are supported by a national organization that will help us in this integral advocacy work.”

Building Jewish Communities of Belonging

Keshet bolsters Jewish institutions—summer camps, day schools, synagogues, JCCs, federations, and more—to live their values as places of belonging. The foundation of this work is Shivyon: Keshet’s Equality Project, an individualized, year-long, cohort-based program of training, consultation, and learning.

Education and Training by the Numbers

Trained 7,819 staff and leaders from 212 day schools, camps, synagogues, service organizations, JCCs, and other Jewish institutions, which collectively serve over 4.5 million people

“When one of our queer graduate students told us, ‘There’s nothing for me in the Jewish community,’ I immediately decided Houston Hillel would fill the void.

As part of Shivyon: Keshet’s Equality Project, Keshet gave us the audacious confidence to move forward and create QJews—a space for queer Jews in their twenties and thirties. With our Keshet Action Plan and Board ally training, we ensured that leadership at Houston Hillel and the broader Houston Jewish community responded with support. We applied for and received a significant Jewish community grant to hire a QJews Program Director—the only local professional solely dedicated to working with queer Jews.”

RABBI KENNY WEISS (he/him)
Executive Director, Houston Hillel
Houston, Texas

“I can’t put into words how much Keshet’s training meant to me professionally and personally. When I first found out about it, I was a bit nervous, because some of my colleagues did not know my sexual orientation.

The training allowed me to feel comfortable enough to open up about my life and share challenges I have faced while teaching. Afterwards, many colleagues approached me and shared how supportive they are. This meant so much because I have always been so cautious talking about my relationship in the work setting. I never know how people will react. I strongly feel that every school would benefit from a Keshet training.”

Together, we dreamed!

Thank you to all who donated to Dare to Dream: A Campaign for the LGBTQ Jewish Future. Together, the Keshet community contributed over $550,000 to honor Idit Klein's 20 years of bold leadership and to support Keshet's growth plan to empower youth, expand in new geographies, and seize new opportunities to strengthen Jewish life and pursue equality.

“We are deeply proud of our relationship with Keshet. Through their advocacy, their consultation, and their programs, Keshet helps us become a better—and stronger—version of the Jewish community we strive to be.”

Jacob Solomon
President & CEO, Greater Miami Jewish Federation

“Close to 20 years ago, my granddaughter Rachel came out as a lesbian. It was through her that I got to know Keshet, and I was a contributor from the beginning. Keshet has made a remarkable contribution to the Jewish community. There are so many sad stories of people who are suffering for not being accepted. Keshet has been there to help the Jewish community understand, accept, and welcome people no matter what.”

Milly Guberman Kravetz
Age 101
Newton, Massachusetts

“We chose Keshet for our B’Mitzvah project because we saw what you are doing for the LGBTQ+ Jewish world. There is so much still to be done, but organizations like Keshet help us lighten that load so much. Thank you Keshet!”

Alex Weinstein, 8th Grader
Mount Zion Religious School, Mount Zion Temple
St. Paul, Minnesota
